HURRY UP WITH THOSE "BAUBLES FOR BARTER"

Are you sending any baubles to the South Pacific? If you are still just "intending" better hurry as Saturday, May 15, is the very last day in the Daly City drive to secure "baubles for buddies to barter." Reb's Upholstery shop, 26-28 Hillcrest drive, is the local collection depot for junk jewelry.

R. E. Bennett, proprietor, will turn the Daly City donations over to the San Francisco League for Servicemen, which ships the trinkets to the combat areas in the South Pacific. Here those discarded beads, compacts, earrings, brooches, clips become the wherewithal for our boys to bribe the natives to carry wounded, dig foxholes, lug ammunition through the jungles and otherwise make themselves useful.

Remember — those discarded clips and that ancient compact may buy some friend of yours a nicely-dug foxhole when he needs it most. Don't delay—take your collection of junk jewelry to Reb's today!

TRANSFUSION — Thousands of American soldiers wounded in battle on the world's fighting fronts today are alive because they received transfusions of Red Cross blood plasma. Made possible through the donations of thousands of patriotic men and women, the Red Cross blood plasma project ranks as the world's largest medical undertaking.

ARE YOU AN AMERICAN?

This is American Citizenship week, nationwide. If you have lived here for a long time without becoming a naturalized citizen, do it now. For if you have been receiving the benefits of Uncle Sam's big heart and open hand all these years, you owe him full allegiance. Give him your whole affection. We are that "one nation, indivisible."

And if you were born in America, rejoice in it. Study to appreciate the opportunities that fact gives you. Read your country's history. Enjoy its greatness, and resolve to help it overcome its weaknesses.

The ideals that brought pilgrims to the shores of this great continent were great ideals—love of freedom, of family, of individual rights, and strength to see that these should survive the willful intention of men's wrong motives.

Of course, the pilgrims brought with them human natures! They did petty things. They could be intolerant, even making some wear scarlet letters, burning others at the stake for witchcraft. But perhaps it took some such fanatical zeal to see them through the terrors of building a life in wilderness and swamp and untamed plains among savages and wild animals.

Few Americans migrate elsewhere to become citizens, but the world's inhabitants make a beaten track to our door. That, too, is significant. However many our mistakes, no country on earth so strongly believes in, and practices, freedom, justice, democracy.

Appreciate your citizenship—your right to live in America. Defend it. Defend freedom of speech, of religion, of assembly, and of the press. We, alone, possess such rights of all countries.

See that you help America keep intact those ideals on which she was founded. It is our heritage to love life, to live fully, to live and let live. Let us dedicate ourselves anew to good citizenship in America.

One Way To Spend Spare Time Well

What do Lions do with their spare time?

Not being a jungle expert we couldn't say about the ones with the roars and the manes, but the Daly City-Colma Lions club variety spend their leisure hours (some of them anyhow) building booktrucks for the hospitals for wounded servicemen in this area.

Down in the basement of the R. L. Crane jr. residence at 140 Woodrow street members of the local Lions club are busily assemblying booktrucks for distribution by the Junior Red Cross. These handy, wheeled gadgets, are three-shelved and are just the thing to move about the wards where men can select books to while away the long hours of convalescence. Ball-bearing wheels were donated by Gus Nigren and W. J. Sweeney.

Funds for this project were raised by donations. To date the Lions and General Pershing P. T. A. are the only local groups to contribute but Crane assures the public that these two organizations have no desire to monopolize the list. Step right up!

Canning season just ahead

This year the legion of home canners will be far larger than ever before. And with the canning season just ahead, it's none too soon to start planning now for this food conservation event.

Plan Your Canning Budget

Of course, the amount of home canning you do will depend upon the size of your family. It is just as wasteful to can too much as it is to pass up the canning season altogether. A fair allowance for the average person is 100 quarts of canned fruits and vegetables a year. This figure includes both home and commercially canned foods. Divide that 100 quarts in thirds, one-third for fruits and berries, one-third for tomatoes and tomato juice, and one-third for vegetables with a large portion in leafy and green vegetables, and you have a rough estimate of your family's needs for the year.

This allowance doesn't include jellies, pickles, relishes and those extras that pop up the menu the year around.

Take Inventory

Check your canning equipment first. A large preserving kettle is a "must" for fruits and berries and tomatoes. Unless you have a pressure cooker or can borrow or rent one or share with your neighbor who has one, just forget about canning vegetables, meat, poultry and fish. It is folly to even attempt to can these things in any other way.

Jars, Lids, and Glasses

Assemble all your jars that can be used for sealing. Some mayonnaise and peanut butter jars and other jars can be used if they take the standard size self-sealing lids. Check the mouths of the jars and discard all those with chips, cracks, or flaws, for such defects make perfect sealing impossible. If you've half gallon jars, plan to use them for tomatoes and fruits. They are too large for the proper penetration of heat for other foods.

Glasses and jars which can't be sealed can be used for jam and sealed with paraffin.

Storage Space

Be sure there's enough storage space for your canned goods before you plan too much canning, for if you haven't a place to keep them, don't can—foods will spoil! They should be stored in a dark, cool place. It is not wise to keep them in the kitchen because of the heat from cooking.

FOR EASY COOKING IN A LIMITED SPACE

If you are cooking on a two-plate stove or one plate burner behind a screen—or if your space is very small, you'll want to read "Cooking In A Kitchenette" in this week's Family Circle magazine. Free at Safeway—a new issue out every Tuesday.

NO CEILING ON THE BOTTOM!

OH, DEAR IT ALL! I JUST CAN'T SEEM TO KEEP UP WITH THESE THINGS!
GOODNESS, MOTHER! WHAT'S THE TROUBLE?
IT'S THESE RATION POINTS AND CEILING PRICES! I KNOW THEY'RE IMPORTANT, BUT I GET SO CONFUSED!
THEY AREN'T SO BAD, MOTHER. LET'S GO DOWN TO SAFEWAY AND I'LL SHOW YOU.
YOU SEE, THE GOVERNMENT SET RATION VALUES TO ASSURE EACH OF US A FAIR SHARE OF THE FOOD, AND CEILING PRICES TO KEEP THE COST OF LIVING FROM JUMPING OUT OF BOUNDS. HERE IN SAFEWAY, RATION VALUES ARE MARKED ON EACH ITEM, AND CEILING PRICES ARE POSTED PLAINLY.
... BUT DIFFERENT STORES HAVE DIFFERENT CEILING PRICES. SAFEWAY'S ARE LOW, TO BEGIN WITH, AND WHENEVER POSSIBLE THEY MAKE THEM EVEN LOWER THAN THAT!
OH, I SEE, MARY. AT SAFEWAY I CAN DOUBLE-CHECK CEILING PRICES AND POINT VALUES—AND GET THE BEST VALUE FOR MY MONEY!

"LOWER CEILING PRICES" Will Make Your Food Go Further

Thrifty shoppers have found our ceiling price items are priced low. Just as prices vary in different stores—so do "ceiling prices" differ. It is not necessary for all stores to maintain the same "ceiling prices." Join the many who shop at Safeway. And enjoy the benefits of lower ceiling prices.

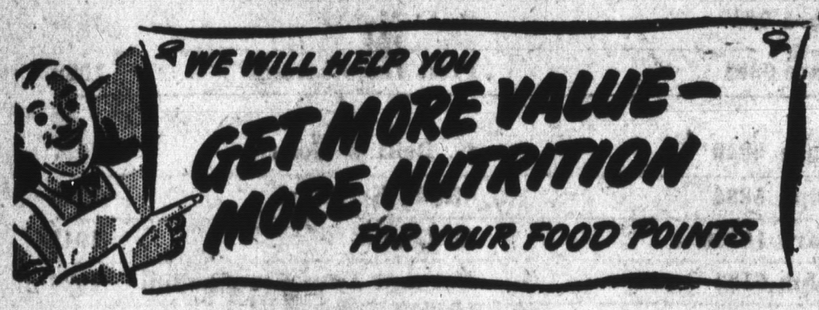
Open Evenings Till 8 p. m.



Events in the past several months have shown many advantages in dealing with a friendly neighborhood food merchant. We were able to look after our customers much more to their advantage during recent critical shortages than were the larger high-volume stores.

There is every reason to believe that this added service will continue to be of great value in the future. Avail yourself of this, among other extra features which are yours at competitively low prices at WESTLAKE MARKET.
